Power of Love

Love is the mother of freedom
Love is what you give and you know you'll have peace
Peace of mind to walk on the waves
In your heart, and in your soul

Love will heal your broken heart
Love is like a cool and soothing breeze in the desert
(Loving hearts) will fight on tomorrow
In the sun, and in the rain . . .

Bridge
Love is simply unconditional
And freedom's release is such a mighty thing

Refrain
Lean on the (power of love) 3X
The journey is yours

Lean on the power of love
It's never too late . . .
To lean on the (power of love)
The journey is yours (It's yours to give and yours to live ...)

Freedom is the daughter of love
Freedom is what you get and you know you're at ease
Ease of mind to walk on the waves
In the calm, and in the storm

Freedom will heal your broken heart
Freedom is like a warm and sunny day in the winter
(Freer minds) will fight on tomorrow
In the springtime, and in the fall . . .

Bridge & Chorus

That's the power of love
