There is a place my heart is full of praise

This is the place I find my life in You

1                      5                      1    1/3 4

And in this place Your love transforms my days

1                      5                      1

This is the place I have a grateful heart

There is a place where You are God alone

That is the place I long to spend my days

And in this place You're seated on the throne

This is the place I'll worship all my days

Verse 3

There is a place where You'll forever be

This is the place I love to call my home

And in this place Your glory fills my soul

This is the place I will forever be
