Strapped

In the depth of my soul
I find reason to believe
I'm strapped in the arms of the Lord

And at the end of the day
I find reason to believe
I'm strapped in the arms of the Lord

When the light of day breaks
I find reason to believe
I'm strapped in the arms of the Lord

And when the night falls
I find reason to believe
I'm strapped in the arms of the Lord

Refrain
In His arms, there is peace
That passeth all understanding
In His arms, there is joy
That knows no end
In His arms, there is wonder
That lifteth all sadness
There I find reason to believe

Bridge
Strapped in the arms of the Lord
Strapped in the arms of the Lord
Strapped in the arms of the Lord
Strapped in the arms of the Lord

I am strapped in the arms of Jesus Christ
Strapped in his arms, everyday, everywhere, every moment I'm awake
I am strapped in the arms of Jesus Christ my Lord
Strapped in the arms of the Lord

I'm strapped in the arms of Jesus Christ
Strapped in his arms, every night, every time, even while I am asleep
I am strapped in the arms of Jesus Christ my Lord
Strapped in the arms of the Lord
